CRAP SHOOTERS ACQUITTED

The gang of negro crapshooters arrested some days ago for shooting dice on Main street were all acquitted but one by the jury, and the verdict of guilty against this one was set.

aside by the Justice of the Peace, on the ground that one man could not very well shoot dice by himself. The acquittal was the result of insufficient evidence.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to take from our midst our beloved friend, classmate and fellow-workman, Asa John Robbins;

And whereas, He sacrificed his own life in an attempt to succor the distressed, exemplifying the saying of Christ, "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his own life for his friends;"

Therefore, be it resolved, That the Young Men's Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday School, of which Asa was a member, adopt resolutions expressive of their admiration, love and respect.

And be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the class, a copy be furnished The Bryan Eagle, and a copy be sent to his parents, to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

R. P. LEE,
LAMAR BETHEA,
H. H. GAMMILL,
Committee.

WHAT INVENTORS ARE DOING

Spellman & Murray, patent attorneys, of Dallas, Texas, announce the issuance by the United States patent office, at Washington, D. C., of the following patents to resident of Texas for the week ending December 13, 1913:

Curtis M. Ballenger, Lubbock, dental appliance.
George H. Cleveland, San Antonio, railway script.

Marcos de la Garza, El Paso, solar heating apparatus.

S. E. Driscoll, Shiro, window-sash fastener, assigned L. Driscoll and A. B. Farris.

Joshua Gibbs, Furrh, Wagon brake.

Clayton F. Holmes, Beaumont, smoke separator, assigned J. Friebs.

Cyde A. Lake, Dallas, brick mason's steel trig.

Douglas B. McCall, Rogers, knee protector.

John F. Milton, Texarkana, valve.

William F. Moss, Richmond, fountain brush.

Sidney Quayle, Hillsboro, remedial appliance.

Ora Spencer, Cuero, foot accelerator.

Adolph Stavinocha, Engle, harrow and cultivator.

Warren Wagner, Burkburnett, under reamer.

Woman's Love of Jewels.

Even in the stone age woman was fond of jewels. But it was man, the brutal master, who wore them. The heavy necklace that descended upon his breast was the emblem of his superiority and power. Even before he had progressed so far as to cover himself with the skin of the stag he wore a necklace of shells, of teeth of animals or glittering flint. The elegant dame or demoiselle who rolls by in her limousine is not so distant a relative of the cave man as she may try to appear. She likes jewels better than dress since each season we see her more and more bejeweled and less and less clothed. The joy of jewels is of the same infantile quality with the coquette of today that it was in the early barbaric times—a thread of metal upon which are strung some shining pebbles, a thread of silk over which are placed some small round concretions of lime found rolling in the liquid of a diseased oyster!—Le Presle Economique.

You'd Better Give Diamonds or Jewelry

Diamonds and jewelry are the perfect gifts. This has always been true and always will be true. You may shop from store to store; you may consider giving wearing apparel or you may think of things for comfort in the home; you may try to meet the desires of your friends with gifts that appeal to their love of sports or pastimes, but there's one store into which you go with absolute certain knowledge that in it you will find a gift for anyone, for everyone—

WATCHES FOR HER,

It Is Caldwell's Jewelry Store

There's only one way to fully appreciate how much more you get here: make comparisons. We are glad to know a customer is well posted on diamonds, watches, jewelry, etc. We usually sell to the ones who know values. Don't make the mistake of thinking that buying gifts of a good jewelry house means that you must spend a large amount; put your limits where you please—at $1.00 or $2.00 or $5.00 or more—and you'll find your money will go just as far and to a great deal better advantage than if you spent it all over town for all sorts of things. For example, look over this list. You'll no doubt find help here:
